Dear Friends:

We all have our crystal balls and this is mine. But remember, it is always - - “listener or viewer beware”. Challenge yourself and always be comfortable with the authority of those that give you advice (including me). Invest knowledgeably and prudently. Be patient and not greedy.

I believe that you, the investor, has to take control of your equity investments going forward. The buck stops with YOU - - - and nobody else!

It is my view that “for the long-term you’ve got to be in the Hard Assets - - to protect your wealth!!

During this summer, I suggest, use your cash reserve and - - - seize the opportunity as I will be doing - - buy while the doldrums last!

As always - - Stay Tuned!!

Regards,

Nick L. Nicolaas
