MINING IN EUROPE a publication of EUROPEAN GOLD CENTRE

Once again here's Henk with 'Mining in Europe'

Dear Reader:

In this issue, you will find:

 my EDITORIAL COMMENT, in which I elaborate on how the attitude in European countries is getting more positive towards mining and exploration activities...

 the introduction of a NEW SUPPORTING COMPANY which is developing a high-grade (and I really mean high-grade here!) uranium project in SLOVAKIA. Read about how this company is progressing with its Pre-Feasibility Study and beyond that on the way to achieve its objective, to become a solid uranium producer...

 interesting company developments in the HIGHLIGHTED CORPORATE NEWS section...

 the FEATURED ARTICLE with the second part of the article on how the European Commission would like to see natural resources to be taken seriously...

 three worthwhile MINING INVESTMENT EVENTS IN EUROPE where you can obtain specific information, meet the experts and managements and expand your networking...

 remarkable NEWS on new exploration companies coming to Europe to respectively develop a possible tin mine in SPAIN and start exploration for gold in SWITZERLAND, yes you are reading it right, SWITZERLAND.

I hope you find it as fascinating to read about these subjects as I found it fascinating to write about them. Your feedback is invited. Happy reading!

Best regards,

Henk J. Krasenberg.
